

LIBER: Keeping In Touch

LIBER uses numerous channels to share information with its libraries and the public. We also invite libraries to share news with the LIBER community, as highlighted below.

1 Mailing Lists

The LIBER-ALL mailing list is open to all staff in LIBER institutions who wish to receive official news from LIBER such as our Mailings, strategic updates and updates on key events such as the Annual Conference. To join, contact Executive Assistant Athina Papadopoulou (email: athina.papadopoulou@kb.nl).

LIBER's Digital Humanities Working Group also has a mailing list to share best and worst practices in the form of short reports and blog posts from members. This list is open for everyone interested in DH and libraries. Sign up here: <http://list.ecompass.nl/listserv/cgi-bin/wa?SUBED1=LIBER-WG-DH&A=1>;

2 Website

Our website www.libereurope.eu contains a great deal of information about LIBER. For example:

- Latest News - www.libereurope.eu/news
- LIBER Executive Board Minutes - www.libereurope.eu/executive-board-meeting-minutes
- LIBER Mailings - www.libereurope.eu/libermailings
- Upcoming Events - www.libereurope.eu/events

Libraries can use the website to share details of their work with the community via guest posts (www.libereurope.eu/submit-a-post) and of upcoming events via the Events Calendar. To submit an event, please email friedel.grant@kb.nl

3 Social Media

LIBER can share news from LIBER libraries via its main social media channels. To share information, contact Communications Officer Friedel Grant (friedel.grant@kb.nl).

- LinkedIn - <https://www.linkedin.com/company/libereurope>
- Twitter - <https://twitter.com/LIBEREurope>
- Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/LIBEREurope>

In addition, the following channels are occasionally used to share LIBER news:

- SlideShare - <http://www.slideshare.net/libereurope>
- YouTube - <https://www.youtube.com/user/libervideo>

4 LIBER Quarterly

LIBER Quarterly is LIBER's Open Access journal. It publishes theoretical contributions as well as examples of good practices. The journal can be found here: <https://www.liberquarterly.eu>.
