Reinventing the laboratory library: the Humathèque Condorcet, a new research library for new uses

Stéphanie Groudiev, director, Humathèque Condorcet, France 11 institutions for an international SSH campus to meet the educational, scientific and digital challenges of the 21st century

12 000 people
3 000 researchers and research support staff, 5 000 doctorants, 4 000 masterants

116 research projects and units (i.e. 1/4 of French SSH units at the Campus Condorcet)

6,5 hectares, 40% green spaces, 11 buildings
- The Conference Centre and its two lecture halls
- The Researchers’ Residence (88 units) and its Faculty Club
- Research buildings: North, South, EHESS
- Ined headquarters
- Scientific Incubator - EPCC headquarters
- Humathèque library
- Cultural and associative centre
- Two student residences – 451 housing units
Key figures

23 000 m²

1 million documents available with over 80% on shelves

5 km of archive material

1,400 seats and over 40 study rooms to seat 4 to 30 people

8 research sections

4 thematic research areas
- Knowledge and Expertise
- History
- Texts, Meaning and Creation
- Spaces, Populations and Societies

4 geographical research areas
- Africa
- The Americas
- Asia
- Eurasia