

LIBER Activities 2024

Your voice for Europe's research library community.

LIBER supports and speaks up on behalf of our university, national, and special libraries – their institutions and their users – across Europe.

But what does this look like in practice? Here are some highlights of LIBER activities over the past year

In-person events

This year, we hosted several in-person gatherings, from our flagship event - the LIBER Annual Conference - to LAG architecture seminar and Winter Event.

Leadership training

State-of-the-art reports and resources

LIBER and DFFU Report – Public-Private Partnerships and Collaborations in the Context of Library Technology

Open Science Meets Citizen Science – Citizen Science Guide Section 3

A Guide to FAIR Practices in Research Libraries

LIBER Journées
for Library Directors

Journal publications

The volume 34 of our open access journal, the LIBER Quarterly featured 7 article and 2 case study publications.

Online events

Educational, informative, and accessible. Next to our in-person events, we regularly organised online events, ranging from webinars to Masterclasses.

Our events continue to engage speakers and participants from across Europe and beyond.

Throughout the year, LIBER representatives have attended conferences, seminars, and events - advocating for the role and work of research libraries.

In November 2024, LIBER visited the European Parliament at the Public Libraries 2030 -organised event: Building Bridges: Libraries for a Sustainable Future.

International projects

Together with our partners, we initiate and participate in strategic and innovative projects,

This year, we worked on a range of international projects, including DIAMAS, CeOS_SE, PALOMERA, ORE, KR21, LibrarIN, and MES-CoBraD.

Collaborations

Being at the forefront of global developments is vital to LIBER's work.

That's why we continue to work with international partners, to ensure the voice of our members is heard across Europe and beyond.

Meet some of our partners we've teamed up with for a range of activities throughout the year.
